Our Services with your business in mind

If your business process involves data-entry intensive document processing or preserving documents for legal and compliance purposes, we can help you to significantly reduce document processing and storage issues and the labor cost associated with data entry.

Our value offering aims at improving your productivity by letting you focus on core competency and eliminating the time spent on document filing, retrieving, data entry etc.

Our services help enterprises unify their efforts involved in managing contents for Sarbanes-Oxley, IRS, SEC, HIPAA and in complying with other document retention policies.

We provide an array of value-added services to analyze data and hyper-link documents to business applications. We bring a full depth of technology understanding and capabilities to build cutting edge cost-effective ECM solutions. We work within your environment allowing you to choose your own hardware and applications.

Our services are ensured to reduce our client's current operating cost through streamlined on-site scanning logistic and off-shore data entry service with quick turnaround time and high quality deliverables. We can quickly process thousands or even millions of pages, complete with scanning, indexing and organizing them in DMS / ECM databases. We handle text documents, database-oriented business forms, and large-format engineering drawings.

While we serve most industries, we offer additional services for Financial, Legal, Accounting and Healthcare companies. We offer back-office financial data processing, decision making support services, loan document processing, insurance claims processing, payment remittance & receipts processing.

It is easy to engage our services. We provide free on-site consulting, assistance to scope and budget projects, free trials, no setup fee and no binding long-term contracts.

We keep in mind that providing the best value to our clients is the best way to keep them as our loyal customers. World-class quality and on-time delivery are an integral part of our services helping our clients' growth and profitability.
